

About Judge Dale

Judge Candy Wagahoff Dale began her appointment as United States Magistrate Judge on March 31, 2008, and served as Chief Magistrate Judge from October of 2008 through September of 2015. Among her other duties, she is the supervisor of the Prisoner Litigation Unit and Chair of the Local Civil Rules Advisory Committee. She is a member of the Jury Trial Improvement Committee for the Ninth Circuit and the immediate past Chair of the Magistrate Judges Executive Board for the Ninth Circuit.

Judge Dale also is a judge liaison of the Governing Board of the Idaho Chapter of the Federal Bar Association and a member of the Executive Board of the Idaho Legal History Society. She is an Emeritus member of the American Inn of Court No. 130, where she previously served as President; an Emeritus member of the Advisory Council for the University of Idaho College of Law; and the immediate Past Chair of the Board of Trustees of the College of Idaho. Judge Dale received the 2014 Justice for All Award from the Diversity Section of the Idaho State Bar, and the 2010 Kate Feltham Award from the Idaho Women Lawyers.

A native of Boise, Judge Dale obtained a Bachelor of Science degree, with honors and as a Gipson Scholar, from the College of Idaho in 1979, and a Juris Doctorate from the University of Idaho College of Law in 1982, where she served as Editor-in-Chief of the Idaho Law Review. Before her appointment to the federal bench, she was a trial lawyer for over 25 years in Idaho and a member of numerous professional and community organizations.
